Some plainer and hard to place lower grade calves fall below these figures.

Compared to last week's market the feeder steers and heifers remained steady to active on quality cattle. Plainer cattle and crossbred cattle carrying a little more ear seem to have lost some ground. This week's market I would say is steady to active on all weight classes. Packer cows remain steady to a few dollars cheaper. Packer bulls have shed some light as High yielding bull was $111.
